

THE GREAT GAME TO BE PLAYED

Virginia and Lehigh Boys are Getting Ready.

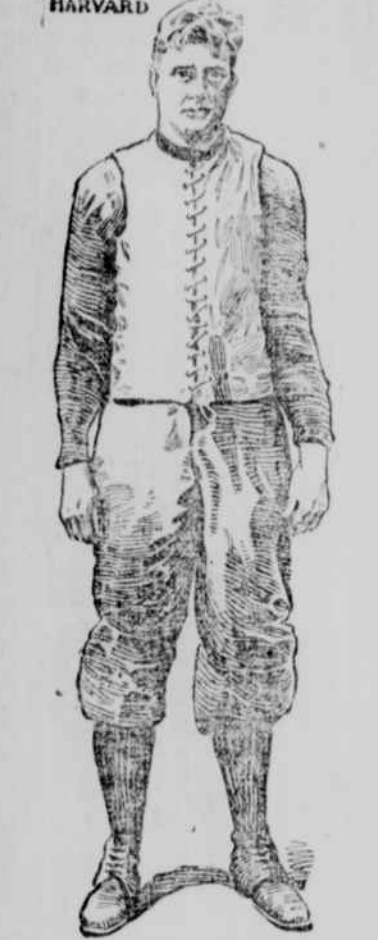

TEAMS ARE EVENLY MATCHED.

The Battle at Broad-Street Park Next Thursday to Be a Royal One—Something About the Players.

The coaching of the teams at Lehigh and the University of Virginia for the past week has been thorough and systematic, with a view to the great game to be played here on Thanksgiving Day.

On that day a battle royal will be waged at Broad-Street Park, before the thousands of spectators, who will crowd the grand stands, waving and flouting the brilliant pennants of their favorite teams. Already the game is talked on every hand, and the wonderful, but characteristic, brace the team at the University has taken within the last two weeks has greatly increased the interest in the game.

MUST BE VICTORIOUS.
Virginia is not coming to Richmond, where they have been the conquering heroes, after so many hard-fought games in the past, entertaining any idea of defeat.

In all athletic sports Virginia and Lehigh have always been quite evenly matched, they have shared honors evenly for many years, and consequently the Thanksgiving game promises to be an interesting contest. Virginia will be in best trim of the season when she goes on the field.

Three of the veteran ball-players, who have not been out before this season, came out this last week, and are in the game for the remainder of the season.

TAKED A BRACE.
This, indeed, has been a season of ups and downs for the Virginia football team to the time of the almost wonderful change for the better, which took place about two weeks ago. Upon the opening of the season, notwithstanding the fact that there were only three or four of last year's eleven back, every one was staggered over the prospects, as out of the chaos of last year, due to the inauguration of the alumni system of coaching, there has grown a system which the most optimistic can appreciate, though it is as yet far from perfect. It is settled, well ordered and defined. This enthusiasm was due in part to having such a man as "Archie" Haxton chosen as head coach, and the team had an experienced and tried man.

The season opened with rather an indifferent showing in the preliminary games, with St. Albans and C. H. S. A. There was not a scarcity of material, but all recognized that it was a coaching which it has had, and a plenty of it.

Haxton worked hard, and succeeded in bringing the team in good shape for the University of Pennsylvania game, and after they scored upon Pennsylvania enthusiasm ran high.

The team seemed to get a bad case of that satisfied feeling, and a great slump began to take place, which was augmented in the Baltimore Military College game, recognized in the Galandet game, and made clear as day out in Michigan. This last game in the West was the turning point for the team. The fact that it was seen that something had to be done, the men on the team put that do-or-die spirit in their play, they worked hard and untiringly.

THREE MEN OUT.
Men, such as Griffin, Lloyd, and Nalle tried in other years, and known as the fastest and undoubtedly the best in the season, sacrificed their personal interests and came out to apply for the team.

Then began the hardest task—getting the team in shape again as a whole, making it play as a unit, but that Haxton has been equal to.

Last Saturday, when the strong team from Blacksburg went down before the 'Varsity beneath a score of 28 to 6, it was shown what Virginia had been doing.

By Thanksgiving, with the time which the coaches have to remedy the faults and strengthen the weak place, Virginia expects to line up against Lehigh the fastest and undoubtedly the best team in the country. It is a team that has been put together by a man who has never been her fortune to develop. Not a heavy team, but making up for lack of weight in perfect playing form and splendid team work.

THE PLAYERS.
In Gerstle and Mallory at halves, Coleman at full-back, and Nalle or Shibley at quarter-back, Virginia has by far the best back-field ever seen on a Southern gridiron.

Gerstle starts like one shot out of a cannon, runs hard and low, and has unlimited capacity for work. He hits the line well, but it is on an end run where he shines most brilliantly, for if there is any kind of an opening he is sure to squeeze through it for gain. Mallory is a half-back of the first class and as a defensive back, Virginia has never had his equal.

Coleman is the best punter, not excepting Pope, ever seen here. His punts are of great force, but he has plenty of chance to get down under them. In running back punts, Dyspepsia.—My husband had dyspepsia. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him. Our little boy was nervous and the baby had ulcerous sores. It cured both. Mrs. Emma Davis, Portage, Pa.

Indigestion.—I could not eat for some months on account of indigestion and indigestion. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me so that I can eat and sleep well. Mrs. G. A. GENTZ, Taylor and Walnut Sts., Wilmington, Del.

backing the line, and general defensive work, he is good.

Captain Summersgill has been moved from end to tackle, and has taken to his new position like a duck to water. He is putting up a great game for an end.

Lloyd, at the other tackle, is playing as of old, his remarkable work in the Carolina game of last year will be remembered by all. Griffin, the heavy half-back of last year's team, is playing in his slashing style. Haxton, an 12 ft. 8 in. man, is at the other guard. His style of playing is exceedingly like that of his great predecessor, Davis.

On the ends are Taylor and Willis, both good men. One of the strong points of the team is the number of good substitutes available. Behind the line are Price and Langford, while in the line are Henderson, Pinkerton, and Stuart for the tackles and guards with McElroy.

The train at Lehigh for the past week has been most satisfactory to the coaches. The back field has developed in speed and their interference has become greatly strengthened. Yesterday's game with Annapolis was proof that the team was fast running into shape. The team was particularly handicapped by the fact that McCarty, the regular center, was not in the game on account of an injured hand. Other men in the line were not in the best of condition.

THE TWO TEAMS.

Something About the Personnel of the Gridiron Champions.

Captain Malcolm Lee McBride hails from Cleveland, Ohio, where he first played football in the University school of that city. He played tackle on his Freshman class, and at Yale, he was the year following was tried at full-back on the 'Varsity of which now, in his senior year, he is captain. His punting is better than ever, and his line bucking places him in the front rank of big college backs. He is 6 feet 2 inches tall, is 21 years of age, and weighs 190 pounds.

F. Gordon Brown, Jr., 1901, of Fushing, N. Y., is Yale's veteran guard and mainstay in the rush line. He is without doubt the next captain of Yale's eleven, for his long record, courage, and loyalty to the team. He has this year developed into a running guard of the Hedgesinger order. Six feet three in his stocking feet, he weighs 180 pounds.

Herman Parker O'Leary, 1900, of New York City, played on his class eleven at Yale and at West Academy. This is his first year on a Yale 'Varsity squad, and he shows the lack of the coaching that Brown has had. Nevertheless he is a valuable man. He is only 21 years of age, but tips the beam at 210 pounds, all of which is muscle. He is 6 feet 2 inches tall, and weighs 190 pounds.

George Albert Sawin, '01, left half back, prepared at the Cambridge Manual Training School, where he played quarter back. He is also very light, but is very agile, and for his abilities as a drop kicker is a valuable man. His age is twenty-one and weighs 160 pounds.

Edward Hale Kendall, Jr., '02, of New York, played football and base-ball at the Mohican Military Academy in New York. He is the youngest man on the team, being only eighteen, but with his fine physique, has been pronounced by experienced coaches to be the most phenomenal half back in the country. He is five feet ten and a half inches tall, and weighs 170 pounds.

Shirley Gregory Ellis, '01, full back, played football at the Andover School team. He was his brilliant line-bucking qualities that won him his place on the eleven ahead of Reid. He is very strong indeed, and is an all around athlete on the track team. He is twenty-one years old, weighs 132 pounds and is six feet tall.

THE JUDGES.
The judges for the race were Mr. M. M. Blacker, Mr. Langhorne Putney, and Dr. C. W. P. Brock.

Mr. W. J. Carter started the horses, assisted by Colonel Percy Hawes.

The judges of the jumping were Dr. R. L. Tritton, Major O. S. Allen, and Mr. A. H. Christian, Jr.

After the races the members and their guests repaired to the clubhouse, where an elegant lunch was served, which was declared by all a very appropriate ending to the day.

Previous to the races the annual lunch was given to the farmers and tenants over whose land the club rides, at which over forty sat down.

EASTERN FIELD TRIALS.
Birds are plentiful and the Dogs Find Them—Herby Race Monday.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. Nov. 18.—A special to the Observer from Newton says: The second series in the Membership stake of the Eastern field trials was concluded to-day. In this series the following dogs were placed:

Ned B. Clara, Lala Belle, Mollie, Jim, Signal, Jeff and Pecunia. The winner in this stake was Ned B. owned by Dr. J. S. Brown, of Montclair, N. J.

The race this morning was much more satisfactory than yesterday. Birds are plentiful and the dogs found them.

The arrivals since yesterday are: Major Taylor, of Rutherford, N. J.; F. O. Beach and T. Newbold, of New York.

A more interesting contest will be the Derby race to begin Monday morning. In this a large number of entries have been made.

came from Lawrenceville. An sub-tackle last year he was not a great success, but at half-back he saved Yale from defeat at the hands of Wisconsin and O'Dea. He is 21 years old, 5 feet, 11 inches in height, and weighs 165 pounds. He is a good runner, and has a very strong arm. He is a native of Lawrenceville, Mass., and is the most picturesque football player in America. When in playing form he weighs 220 pounds, when out he tips the scales at 230. He is too bulky for a 'Varsity eleven, however, though the choice lies between a light, quick man like Hale, and a heavy, slower man like Cunha. Not till the game is about to begin can one be certain who will fill Cunha's place. Prepared at Queen's in California.

John C. Tomlinson, Jr., 1901, is a New Yorker. He is 20 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds.

Charles Dupes, 1901, comes from Philadelphia. He is a punter, not a drop kicker. He is a good quick half-back, playing the full back's position if McBride is to leave the game. Six feet tall and 135 pounds in weight, he is a fast man with the ball, excelling in end plays.

"Young" Chadwick, as the Freshman brother of Charles Chadwick, the former Yale guard, is a find at half-back. He came from Brooklyn Polytechnic School, his home being in that city. He is a sprinter of 19 years of age. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall, and weighs 135 pounds. He is scarcely 19 years old.

THE HARVARD TEAM.
William Armstrong Monds Burton, '01, of New York, is the captain of the eleven, playing right guard. This is his first year on the team. He is the most powerful man on the team, being six feet three inches tall, and weighing 195 pounds. He is 21 years old.

David Coffin Campbell, '02, is one of the best ends that have ever played at Harvard. He weighs 170 pounds. He is a fast runner and plays well under punts. As he is 25 years old, he has the strength and the experience requisite for a steady player.

Malcolm Donald, first year Law School, of Brookline, is the regular left tackle. He is of fine build for a tackle, is 6 feet tall and weighs 160 pounds. His chief value on the team is in his ability to bring into every play, and always doing more than his share of work. He is 22 years old.

Walter Ayers Reed, '00, prepared for college at the Harvard School, Orléans, where he lived. He is the lightest man of the entire trip, weighing 135 pounds. His age is twenty years, and height five feet eleven and a half inches. Last year he was very effective running with the ball, and the hammer throw in England last year.

Francis Lowell Burnett, '01, is the heartiest man on the squad, weighing 210 pounds. He is the most wonderful kicker Harvard has ever had, not only in the way of place kicks, but also in drops and punts. He is twenty-one years old and five feet ten and a half inches in height.

James Lawrence, '01, of Groton, is right tackle on the eleven. He has always been rather tall, six feet one and a half inches, for his weight to make a really valuable man, but this season he has increased in weight until his 178 pounds make him an efficient tackle. He is twenty years old.

John White Halliwell, '01, of West Medford, was captain of his school team at Hopkinton's School, Boston. He is very tall and thin, six feet and a half inches and weighs 165 pounds. He is a very agile, and for his abilities as a drop kicker is a valuable man. His age is twenty-one and weighs 160 pounds.

Edward Hale Kendall, Jr., '02, of New York, played football and base-ball at the Mohican Military Academy in New York. He is the youngest man on the team, being only eighteen, but with his fine physique, has been pronounced by ex-

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.
A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.

Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles, for years, and after trying the many lotions, ointments, and so-called cures without cure or relief give up the hope of a final cure, rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary, since the discovery of the Pyramidal Pile Cure, a remedy which is approved by the medical profession, as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure, not merely relief, of a good deal of pain, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of marvelous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate:

Dr. J. W. Megan, Louisville, Kan., writes: "I have used a box of Pyramidal Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I have used in the past twenty-two years."

James Jemerson, Dubuque, Iowa, says: "I suffered from piles for six years; have just used the Pyramidal Pile Cure and am a well man."

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of piles for fifteen years. The Pyramidal Pile Cure and Pyramidal Pile Ointment have relieved me in a short time a complete cure."

The Pyramidal Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cents per package. A book on cause and cure of piles will be sent by mail, by addressing the Pyramidal Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE DEEP RUN HUNT CLUB RACES

Splendid Sport Furnished the Members and Their Families.

THE WINNERS OF THE EVENTS.

"Starlight" First in the Farmers' and Tenants' Race—"Freak" Again Takes the "Mirador"—An Elegant Spread.

In spite of the disappointment of the Deep Run Hunt Club in not having the full programme for the races that they had advertised a very satisfactory and enjoyable afternoon was spent by a large representation of the members of the club, their families and friends. At least seven hundred people viewed the sports, which consisted of the following:

A half-mile flat race, for the farmers' and tenants' horses, whose land the club rides over.

The entries were, finishing in the order named: "Starlight," Mr. J. T. Walton's "Charlie," Mr. Charles E. Childrey's "Black Bear," Mr. J. A. Childrey's "Penny," Mr. Tom Doran's "Ellen T." and Mr. J. P. Palmer's "Bessie."

The first prize was a saddle, value $12; second, a bridle, value $5, and third, a bridle, value $3.

The next race was a half-mile flat, for horses owned by members of any recognized hunt club, gentlemen riders, Purse, $50, which went to the first horse.

The starters were: Mr. A. H. Thiermann's "Monteith" (rider, Mr. Thomas Martin); Miss Borchers' "Minnie B." (rider, Mr. E. E. Eppes); Mr. W. C. Schmidt's "Hermann the Great" (rider, Mr. Lewis Croxton); Dr. R. L. Tritton's "Red Silk" (rider, Mr. Milton Croxton); Mr. H. C. Beattie's "Touchdown" (ridden by owner); Mr. Jack Gordon's "Zeb Vance" (rider, Mr. Curtis Barker); John "Effie Dean" (rider, Mr. Gwyn Harrison).

"Hermann the Great" won by a length, followed by "Minnie B." second, and "Touchdown" third.

The last race was a steeplechase, two and a half miles. The entries were: Dr. Joseph A. White's "Game Cock" ridden by Mr. Lewis Croxton; Mr. J. T. Anderson's "Eddie" ridden by Mr. H. C. Beattie; Mr. J. D. Mahoney's "Pauntier" ridden by Mr. Thomas Martin; and Dr. R. L. Tritton's "Deep Run" ridden by Mr. Milton Croxton.

Pauntier took the lead from the start, and kept her place throughout the race, finishing in good style. "Eddie" came in a good second, clearing all of the jumps without a fault. The others did not finish.

Next on the programme were the jumping contests. The "Westbrook Cup" was contested, as there were not sufficient eligible entries. The contest for the "Mirador" was, however, a great success. The condition was that this cup, which was given by Mr. R. G. Shaw II., of Dedham, Mass., should be won twice by the same rider, especially interesting.

Mr. William Rogers' "St. George," and Mr. Julian Morris' "Freak" Both of these horses being entered the second time made the contest especially interesting. The judges awarded the cup to "Freak," who cleared two of the jumps, which were four feet eight inches high. He was ridden by Mr. J. C. Barnard, of Keswick, Va. "St. George," who was ridden by Mr. Arthur Charles Macfarlane, of Tregent, Va., was a close second, being about two points behind "Freak." The other horses competing were: Mr. T. N. Carter's "Red Rock," ridden by Mr. Beattie; Dr. C. L. Siegel's "Duke," ridden by Mr. Martin; Mr. E. H. Harvey's "Savage," ridden by Mr. Beattie; and Dr. Tritton's "Deep Run," ridden by Mr. Milton Croxton.

The judges for the race were Mr. M. M. Blacker, Mr. Langhorne Putney, and Dr. C. W. P. Brock.

Mr. W. J. Carter started the horses, assisted by Colonel Percy Hawes.

NEITHER SIDE COULD SCORE

Yale Held the Harvard Attack by a Superb Defence.

MISS TRY AT GOAL FROM FIELD.

The Pigskin Sailed Just Outside the Posts—Princeton Wins From Washington and Jefferson.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 18.—In a whirlwind of excitement simply heart-breaking in its intensity, the Harvard-Yale game on Soldiers' field this afternoon ended without a score.

Yale had played Harvard to a standstill, then Harvard rallied to the aid of the greatest finisher ever seen on the gridiron, and after a missed try at goal, the immense crowd of spectators swarmed down from the seats to where the players were clashing their opponents.

The famous football game on the same field in '97 had been repeated, and Yale by her superb defence had held the much-hated Harvard attack.

The contest was a brilliant one from start to finish, and from the blowing of the first whistle to the sounding of the last, the result was in doubt. The end of the game furnished the most thrilling climax of the afternoon's sport, when, after rushing the ball to Yale's 25-yard line by steady plays and with 20 seconds of the playing time left, Halliwell, the Harvard end, brought the enormous crowd to their feet when he dropped back of the line for a drop kick for goal.

It was a neat attempt, but the pigskin sailed just outside the goal posts.

Of the teams as a whole, Harvard proved to be a surprise, as kept Harvard from equal to Harvard's in many respects. The game was clean throughout, penalties being imposed but twice. None of the men were seriously injured, the substitutions being made as a matter of policy.

Score: Harvard, 0; Yale, 0.

The attendance at the game, 35,000, is believed to have been the largest in the history of college sport, or, at least, of football.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 18.—In a close and exciting game, Princeton defeated Washington and Jefferson here to-day by a score of 19 to 0.

The game was characterized by Princeton's heavy drives through its opponents' lines, and the splendid tackling of Washington and Jefferson. Princeton proved formidable on defence, and at times frequently lost the ball on downs and off-side plays.

The features of the game were Hutchinson's runs of forty yards, and the heavy line bucking of McCord and Knight, and all-around work of Alexander. Attendance, 2,000.

COLUMBIA, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Columbia defeated Dartmouth to-day 22 to 0.

The game was a close one, but Columbia broke through the line and scored the ends at will. Dartmouth succeeded in making the necessary five yards twice only, and at no time did they hold Columbia for downs.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 18.—The game of football between the University of Georgia and the men from the Auburn College, Alabama, at Piedmont Park, was called off within 20 seconds of the end of play, principally on account of darkness, but also because the crowd on the field interfered with the players.

The score stood, Auburn, 11; Georgia, 6; and had the referee permitted the play to go on, the play would have undoubtedly have gone to the Alabama team. According to the rules, the referee's action made the score 0-0.

The Auburn men are indignant and say they will
